

Associate Marriage and Family Therapist

Job Summary

Under the direction of the Virtual Clinical director and our team of Clinical Supervisors, the Associate Marriage and Family Therapist provides direct clinical services to women, men, children, and families. This position includes: providing direct psychotherapy treatment, performing client psychosocial assessments, developing treatment plans and guiding the treatment process, developing exit plans, providing psychological and emotional support to clients, facilitating client support groups, adhering to client confidentiality standards, training and participating in weekly individual as well as 1 hour of group supervision each month. A caseload of 15 clients, 20 clinical hours a month, and 5 hours a month of community service with BWMHI is required.

Essential Tasks

Competent performance of all essential tasks is critical to the continued employment of the employee in this position. The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skills and/or ability required. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

- Individual and Family Therapy

Work with children and adults using various modalities including individual, couple, family and group therapy, as needed. Provide direct psychotherapy treatment, performing client psychosocial assessments, developing treatment plans and guiding the treatment process, developing exit plans, providing psychological and emotional support to clients.

- Support Group Facilitation

Facilitate individual or group therapy sessions surrounding a wide array of issues.

- Reporting

Maintain accurate records and charting of client files. Ensure that client documentation is completed in a timely manner and within 24 hours of the client encounter.

. • Meetings

Attend individual and group supervision as well as , Also works with outside stakeholders providing psychiatric services, medical services and psychological services. Collaborates with Family, Youth and Children's Services and other partner agencies as needed.

- Actively utilizes clinical supervision to develop and hone intervention skills and strategies.

Organizational Culture: A commitment to the agency's mission of BWMHI Familiarity or experience with issues that impact the lives of people supported by BWMHI. Sensitive to issues of confidentiality and diversity.

Prerequisite Qualifications The candidate must meet the following criteria in order to be considered for employment in this position:

- Experience working with children, adolescents and families preferred.
- Experience or interest in working with Black women, men families and children and other minority populations.
- Demonstrated oral, written, and interpersonal communication skills, including the ability to relate to diverse client and community populations via video, telephone, and in person.
- Master's Degree from an accredited college or university in the field of marriage and family counseling, academic preparation required for licensing or internship as defined by state licensing requirements.
- Must be currently working toward the fulfillment of AMFT license requirements.
- Valid driver's license, current auto insurance, ability to transport self to job-related events and education locations.
- Experience with Windows operating system.

To apply, send a cover letter and resume to: info@bwmhi.org.